

About our Speaker

Name: Yogesh Wadadekar

Where does he work: National Centre for Radio
Astrophysics, Tata Institute of Fundamental Research

What does he do: Yogesh works on various problems related to the evolution of galaxies using many telescopes in space and on the ground

Insert a picture of Where and what did he study?

Yogesh obtained his BTech at IIT Bombay in 1994 and then a Msc and PhD in Physics from the University of Pune while working at IUCAA.

He then did postdoctoral stints at Paris, Baltimore and Princeton before returning home to India.

What are his interests (in job, and outside): He has many interests – nature and wildlife (especially birds and snakes), public outreach in astronomy, Indian history, computer programming, economics, politics.